DESCRIPTION OF THE ITEM

LOCLO - Dietary Fibre

DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS

LOCLO is an excellent source of dietary fibre. One serving of the product (9.5 g) provides as much as 3.8 g of fibre, both soluble and insoluble. The fibre contained in the product comes from apples and oat bran. What is more, the product composition includes cinnamon, turmeric and rosemary. Cinnamon stimulates appetite and digestion, helps maintain proper blood sugar levels and supports the production of good cholesterol (HDL). Cinnamon also contributes to maintaining proper gas levels and stomach comfort. Turmeric increases the production and quality of blood, supports cardiac function and stimulates appetite. Rosemary helps support the proper functioning of the liver, contributes to digestive comfort and increased fat digestion.

- One serving of LOCLO consists 1.6 g of apple fibre, and turmeric helps maintain a healthy liver
- Cinnamon supports the heart, circulation and the production of good cholesterol (HDL).
- Cinnamon is vital for maintaining healthy urinary and reproductive systems.
