Hops & Valerian with Passionflower

DIETARY SUPPLEMENT

Sleep, or rather its appropriate length and quality, has a huge impact on our health. An adult should sleep 7–8 hours a day. Lack of sleep does not only result in a bad mood, but also strongly affects our concentration, memory, and ability to make logical decisions.

We sleep less and less, and the quality of our sleep is getting increasingly worse. One of the reasons for this is the omnipresent stress—one of the greatest enemies of our health.

Hops & Valerian with Passionflower is a composition tailored for times of constant pursuit. Work, exams, appointments... Today, stress is present in almost every aspect of our lives.

We all need a break.

A combination of calming and relaxing herbs: Hops, Valerian and Passionflower has soothing and anti-stress effects.

Hops (Humulus lupulus) has a calming effect and thus supports the central nervous system.

The Valerian root (Valeriana officinalis) affects healthy sleep and helps to maintain proper cognitive functions (e.g. memory).

The Passionflower (Passiflora incarnata) promotes falling asleep, produces a soothing deep sleep, and increases the body's resistance to stress.
