DESCRIPTION OF THE ITEM

RED CLOVER

DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS

Red clover (Trifolium pratense) is a plant found on almost every continent, so the key process in product development was a proper and careful selection of raw material. Trifolium pratense helps women cope with menopausal symptoms such as hot flashes, sweating, anxiety and irritability. These are the reasons why Red clover is the product most often chosen by women. Red clover positively affects the circulatory system, increases the elasticity and strength of capillaries and capillary walls, and normalizes blood pressure.

- Red clover improves cardiac performance.
- Red clover is beneficial for bone hardness.
