DESCRIPTION OF THE ITEM

Toxins from food, water and air can wreak havoc on health as they build up in the body. Don't let them! The unique blend of fibers, fruits and vegetables in patent-pending UltraBiome DTX primes intestinal and digestive pathways, targeting body purification. It also helps support a healthy gut lining.

Why UltraBiome DTX?

If you live, breathe, eat or drink in our modern world, then you're exposing yourself to pollutants and toxins on a daily basis. But with UltraBiome DTX, you can still live a healthy, thriving life!

We know what you're up against, so we've searched the world for herbal ingredients of the highest quality to naturally ease your body's burden. Take the red beet root and broccoli flowers in this formula. Harvested from the verdant fields of Hungary, both are organically grown and non-GMO to give you all their natural goodness with nothing you don't want or need.
